5.6 Termination for Insolvency

5.6.1 The Seller may at any time terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the Purchaser, without compensation to the Purchaser, if the Purchaser becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. Notwithstanding the above, such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the Seller.

5.7 Termination for Convenience

5.7.1 The Seller may, by written notice sent to the Purchaser, terminate the Contract, in whole or in part, at any time for its convenience. The notice of termination shall specify that termination is for the Seller's convenience, the extent to which performance of work under the Contract is terminated, and the date upon which such termination becomes effective.

5.6 Resolution of Disputes

5.6.1 The Seller and the Purchaser shall make every effort to resolve amicably by direct informal negotiation any disagreement or dispute arising between them under or in connection with the Contract.

5.7 Applicable Law & Jurisdiction

5.7.1 The Contract shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the Laws of India. The jurisdiction for any legal action or proceedings will be Courts of Jaipur, Rajasthan, INDIA.

5.8 Force Majeure

5.8.1 In the event that the Purchaser or the Seller is delayed in performing any of their respective obligations under the Contract, and such delay is caused by Force Majeure, including but not limited to war, civil insurrection, fires, floods, epidemics, earthquakes, quarantine restrictions and freight embargoes, such delay may be excused as provided in Clause 5.4, and the period of such delay may be added to the time of performance of the obligation delayed.

5.8.2 If a Force Majeure situation arises, the Purchaser shall promptly notify the Seller in writing of such condition and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the Seller in writing, the Purchaser shall continue to perform its obligations under the Contract as far as it's reasonably practical and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance, not prevented by the Force Majeure event.
